

Dallas / Houston Apartment Operation

Ezio Valentini joined International Realty and Leasing Corporation and assumed the management of the Dallas/Houston operations for the Company. There were 4,770 apartment units under management.

Ezio Valentini of Stevens Forest.

Complex Directed By Young Italian

Now serving as general manager for International Realty and Leasing Corp., which recently assumed management of the Stevens Forest Apartment group in Oak Cliff, is a 27-year-old grandson of an Italian count. Ezio Valentini was born of Italian nobility in Cortina, near Venice.

International Realty now operates 470 apartment units in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and 4,300 in the Houston area, Mr. Valentini says.

Albert Stavitsky of New York and Houston is president of the firm.

In addition to the 272 Stevens Forest units there are Richardson's Town House, the Town House in North Dallas and the Bois d'Arc, as well as the Winifred in Fort Worth. The firm is considering motel and hotel operation in Dallas. Mr. Valentini says.

He joined the International Realty and Leasing Corporation in 1963. The big real estate firm operates internationally as well as in such states as Texas, New York, New Jersey, Florida and California.